This "Gift of Wings Fund" was established as a living memorial to Harold E. Botsford, Jr., ("Hal") by his daughter, Alison Botsford, and his family. Hal was an avid aviator and an amazing person. He was a flight instructor for five decades, and flew from April 16, 1942 until lifting off into the air for the last time on February 27, 2005. Hal loved life and he loved to fly.

This fund is intended to be a lasting legacy to a man who touched many lives and, through this educational grant, he will have the opportunity to touch many others by helping them to experience the wonder and joy of flight.

This annual fund will award a student grant(s) to be used toward a sky ride(s), a student's flight lessons, or the pursuit of a new rating. The grant is available to all who are interested in flying, and there are no gender, race or age limitations.
